EAST GERMANYMILITARYSoviet activity at KUMMERSDORF (GUT)(22/23 Aug 58)

25X1

1. The barracks opposite the railway station at KUMMERSDORF (GUT) [ ] is occupied as at 22 Aug 58 by Motor Transport Service troops.
2. This barracks is very closely guarded and movement for civilians around the barrack complex is forbidden. A railway siding branching off the SPERENBERG - JUTERBOG line [ ] leads directly into the barracks. The rails of this line are well polished, as if frequently in use. No traffic was seen to use this railway line on 22 Aug 58. No petrol bowlers entered the barracks, only light vehicles, motor-cycles, etc.
3. Another railway siding branches off the SPERENBERG - JUTERBOG railway line [ ] and enters the barracks to the west of the main line situated [ ]. The rails of this line are rusty and it is obvious that it is used infrequently.
4. [ ] a siding branches off the SPERENBERG - JUTERBOG line and runs SE into the wooded area.
5. [ ] there is a training ground for M.T. drivers. Various obstacles, through which vehicles have to pass for drivers' tests, are at this place.
